

*New River Art's
Nadine Allen Memorial Award*

Nadine Allen was one of the founders of the New River Art Biennial Exhibition, and she remained active on show committees up to her death in 2005, when this award was founded in her honor.

The Nadine Allen Memorial Award was first presented in 2005 to Martha McDowell, of Floyd, VA, for her Mixed Media work, “Red Hat” by Juror Don Black.

The 2007 award was given to Jane Winders Frank of Roanoke, VA, for her watermedia, “Madonna of the Desert” by Juror Susan Bloom.

To ensure that the award continues in coming years, please send a check and the completed form below to:
